ASYLUM SEEKERS TO COST LONDON BOROUGHS £45 MILLION IN ONE YEAR!

Local authorities in London are being forced to support destitute asylum seekers in their boroughs at enormous cost to the local taxpayers. The Association of London Government is currently spending £200 per person per week to house and feed "asylum seekers". The problem in early 1997 has become such that local authorities are running out of bed and breakfast accommodations to house the flood of asylum seekers, presently scattered around 47 hotels in eleven different boroughs. Pressure is greater on those boroughs nearest to the main international airports and railway stations. Present figures mean that in 1998 the cost to London boroughs will be over £45 million just to support the 14,000 adult asylum seekers already here and an expected 4,000 adult asylum seekers expected between January 1997 and January 1998.

No figures are given for the number of children being brought in by these people, or how they are to be supported, cases exist where young children have been put onto aircraft out of Nigeria and similar African states to turn up alone and uncollected at UK airports.

The continuing wars in Central Africa, Sub-Saharan Africa and Sri Lanka means that there is no end in sight to the numbers entering Britain, add to that so-called "political" refugees from other parts of Africa, the Indian subcontinents, South America, Middle East and Far East where there is political strife and the whole world will be at Britain's doorstep.

BRITISH MOVEMENT WHERE WE STAND

The British Movement is a National Socialist organisation and as such is dedicated to the creation of a mono-racial society based on the foundations of Family and Folk, Blood and Soil, Race and Nation.

Britain has sunk into a stagnant ditch as this century closes. What point is there in foreign policy when the government cannot put out own country in order? Why is Britain pumping funds overseas and interfering in other counties when Britain is in a mess?

The political, economical and social chaos which Britain has become can only be resolved by a total break with the existing system, only through National Socialism within a new concept and a new system can future be secured. A National Socialist New Order built on the principles of Race, Nationhood and citizenship of the Folk, understanding the law and applying the law of Race, Blood and Soil.

BRITISH MOVEMENT FORGED FROM STEEL!

WE BELIEVE....

RACE IS ALL: Our folk must again respect their past and strive towards their great destiny. We must instil in all generations an awareness of the importance of Race and purity of blood. Mongrelisation destroys the heritage and stifles all future achievements. Our civilisation is secure only in purity of Race and belief in destiny.

MONEY THE SERVANT: A stable economy is one which reflects the true worth of the community. Money is a mere token of this wealth - a means of exchange to allow convenient trading of goods and services. The modern notion of money controlling the people must be broken and a total change in the financial system is required.

A PART OF NATURE: We must ensure that the beauty and resources of our earth are preserved for the benefit of future generations of our folk. We must not waste or destroy the natural order - the balance of which is so vital for the well being of all life. Our new moral code will not allow scientists, businessmen and politicians alike playing at God in the name of curiosity, monetary gain or profit.

BEYOND CAPITALISM AND COMMUNISM: The ideologies of the old world strive for the total enslavement of all peoples. We are against the materialistic rat-race of lust under Capitalism as well as the monotonous drudgery in the grey bureaucrats of Communism.

EUROPE A FAMILY: The peoples of Europe stem from a common racial root. We must enjoin in spiritual union for the defence of our freedom against common enemies. Our strong Race founded block will scale new heights in all fields for the advancement of our vibrant culture.

THE ETERNAL STRUGGLE: Mankind must continually strive for higher, better life-struggle for a brighter, more noble world. Each day must bring new challenges in the perpetual struggle towards greater civilisation. There can be no perfect world but our folk must strive towards its improvement leaving behind the decay of today's moribund world.

The European Union declared 1997 the European Year against Racism (and Xenophobia and Anti-Semitism). Which basically means that millions of pounds of taxpayers money both in Britain and across Europe will be thrown into anti-White propaganda and the whole of the White population of Western Europe and Britain will be subjected to brainwashing of the most extensive and expensive kind. The Race Relations Industry will not only spend a fortune, but the professional anti-racist and race relations "experts" will make a fortune.

Meanwhile the culture and heritage of Britain and Western Europe will be further undermined and another turn of the screw made against squeezing out White resistance to Third World immigration into our White homelands. This undermining of White opposition to Third World immigration and the influx of non-White "asylum-seekers" could not come at a worse time because Europe and Britain is under increasing assault by a tide of illegal immigrants being smuggled in from North Africa and the Indian Sub-Continent.

The coast of Spain is the nearest point on the European mainland to the coast of Africa, and it is here that the Spanish authorities regularly intercept boat loads of illegal immigrants from Africa and the Arab countries. Every week the drowned corpses of those who try to cross to Spain on rafts are washed up on beaches or dragged up in fishing nets.

Now as never before the British Movement must strive to awaken the British people to the threat posed to our national identity, culture and folk from being overwhelmed by the flood tide of peoples from the Third World.

Now as never before we must strive to bring the British Movement message of White Pride, and a Nation based on Blood and Soil to our people before it is too late.

SECURITY: MAIL.

Below is some information on how to use the Postal Service to the best without causing yourself or others any security problems.

You may think that some of the points stated below a bit Far Fetched but surly it is better to be safe than more than sorry.

1./ Never put your name and address on envelopes, as if you are known it makes it easier for your mail to be recognised and obtained by the wrong hands or be destroyed.

2./ Never keep letters, as if found by police or enemies on an unexpected visit they could be used against you or others and could help enemies convince employers, council etc. of your operations and of your views which could cause you or others personal problems.

3./ If you are writing to someone who already knows your address, do not write it at the top of the page, as if your letters fell into wrong hands it would either mean nothing to them or make it harder to trace. When possible, do not sign your name.

4./ Abbreviate all letters, if possible so that only the person the letter is for will understand it. A good example of this is to use Nicknames or Christian names and never full names.

5./ Leave all letters unmarked, completely free of emblems and logo's.

6./ Wrap mail properly. Make sure letters are sealed properly so that letters will not fall open in the hands of the post office and the contents be revealed.

IT'S NO GREAT FEAT TO BE DISCREET!

THE THIRD WORLD IS COMING!

In the 1970's, a book called 'The Camp of the Saints" became popular reading in racial Nationalist and National Socialist circles. The book was written by a French author, Jean Raspail and told a fictional tale set in the near future where Europe and Britain, but France in particular was invaded peacefully by millions of starving 'refugees" from India and Asia. The liberal governments were aided and abetted by the Churches in welcoming the starving hordes, while only a handful of "reactionary" Whites resisted the invasion. Although fiction, the book had a very real warning for Europe and the West, that one day the ever increasing populations of Africa, Asia and South America would leave their famine stricken, wasted countries and would flood out of the overcrowded slums and shanty towns to invade the prosperous, disease free nations of the White world.

Now it would seem that Raspail's fearful prediction is coming true, the Camp of the Saints is upon us. From numerous reports from across Europe over the past few years, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the former stream of illegal non-whites being smuggled into Britain and Western Europe is turning into a tidal wave. The illegals go to incredible lengths to get into Europe through the so-called 'soft frontiers' of the Balkans, Greece and Italy. Once they are safely ashore, the illegals travel across Europe to the choice destinations of Britain, the Netherlands, France and Germany. Once there they disappear into the sizeable "multi-racial" cities where the existing ethnic minority populations provide a cover for the illegals, often with family members already there. Each country has an immigrant welfare organisation which provides help and advice to the 'new-comers'. If discovered and threatened with deportation, the ethnic minority communities can usually be counted on to campaign against the deportation. A common tactic is for the arrested illegals to ask for political asylum.

In January 1997, the "Observer" newspaper broke the story of just one illegal ship load which was wrecked off the Greek coast, many of those on board were heading for Britain.

On December 23rd 1996, a 1,500 tonne ship, the "Yiohan" was sailing across the Mediterranean towards the Greek coast, below decks were an estimated 149 Sri Lankans, 227 Indians and about 90 Pakistanis. All were hoping to be secretly landed in Greece or Sicily so that they could sneak across Europe using forged papers to get to the big cities of Western Europe and Britain. On this occasion the plan went wrong and as the "Yiohan" forced its seasick human cargo onto an older boat, the F174, the larger boat rammed the smaller one, sending about 280 of its illegal passengers to the bottom. A few dozen survivors were dumped near the Greek port of Ermioni to be eventually rounded up by the Greek police.

This ship wreck was just one case of smuggling in illegals from Asia, according to H.M. Customs and Excise, more than 10,000 illegal immigrants were detained entering Britain in 1995 and those were the ones that the authorities caught
An estimated 300,000 illegals enter Western Europe every year and use the softer frontier controls of the European Union to travel from country to country. Every year the population of the poor Third World countries grows and every year the human flood turns West. Once established in Britain these people look to bringing in their dependants and extended families by either legal or illegal means.

The prediction of Raspail's work of fiction is steadily becoming reality.

DR. JOSEPH GOEBBELS

In his last letter before he died, Joseph Goebbels said to his son, Harald:

"Do not let yourself be confused by the uproar that will now reign throughout the world. The lies will one day break down under their own weight and the truth will again triumph. The hour will come when we shall stand pure and undefiled as our aims and our beliefs have always been".

An astonishing prediction that today is coming true.

THE GENERAL ELECTION IN 1997

If anyone on the National Socialist or Nationalist side of British politics has any doubts about the rigged nature of the so-called 'democratic' political process in the UK, here is just one little insight into how impartial and even-handed the electoral system operates.

The electoral system claims to be open to all shades of political opinion, who are allegedly offered even treatment under the Representation of the People Act and related legislation which is supposed to guarantee certain freedoms in relation to public meetings, equal broadcasting rights, distribution of electoral literature and manifesto. However those so-called 'democrats' of the political Left and fellow travellers have other ideas, consider this extract from the "Observer" newspaper on Sunday 5th January 1997, journalist Nick Cohen commenting on the likely election campaign by the British National Party, states that, "Activists associated with Searchlight have held secret negotiations with left-wingers in the broadcasting and Post Office unions. They have been discussing pulling the plug on BNP broadcasts and encouraging postmen to refuse to deliver its election address."

So much for democracy and the even-handed nature of the British electoral process, and that is just one small part of how the system works against those political elements which oppose the present corrupt and decadent system.

THE INTERNET IN THE NET

Although Brussels and the rest of the EU are still sore that Britain blocked the establishment of a monitoring centre against racism and xenophobia in Brussels, the non-British establishments of Europe are determined to dictate to Britain indirectly.

At the London launch of the European Year Against Racism the Home Office minister responsible for community relations Timothy Kirkhope made clear that Britain intended to be the leader of the fight against xenophobia, anti-Semitism and racial discrimination.

Mr. Kirkhope spoke of neo-Nazi activities becoming an increasing worry, but neo-Nazism isn't a huge problem in Britain as in other countries like Germany.

Nonetheless, our enemies on the inside are now using their influence to indirectly rewrite Democracy to spell out dictatorship by trying to impose new laws to stop National Socialist organisations and other racist factions from using the Internet.

Their aim is to cast a net over the Internet and prevent the spread of the type of politics they fear: The truth.

The Internet is supposed to be a democratic tool allowing the world to communicate. Freedom of speech, as is so believed. Yet the enemy who have helped create this tool for their own advantage have cut their own throats and don't like two playing the same game.

The Internet allows the type of sleaze like pornography, violence and political incorrectness you should fear your children ever coming into contact with. Yet when we fight for the dignity of our children for a better future for them, we are condemned has "The Wrong Doers".

Fear not the enemy you can see, but the enemy that hides.

UNDER ATTACK BY THE SECRET STATE
The threat of the new Police Bill

Here in Britain National Socialists and Nationalists face ever increasing pressure from the State. Since the mid-1970's the State has stripped the so-called "Far-Right" of the British political organisations of what limited freedom of speech and assembly they had. The assorted Race Relations Acts restricted verbal and written criticism of non-Whites; passed legislation to silence opposition to coloured/Third World immigration into Britain; used Public Order laws to curb so-called "racist" political marches and demonstrations. The 1986 Public Order Act finally put a stop to large scale public rallies and marches, prevented most of the traditional means of street politics and put even heavier penalties on the publication and distribution of literature and propaganda which was deemed "racially offensive".

Now the situation has deteriorated even further. For those of our overseas readers who still think that Britain is a 'free country' with freedom of speech and political expression, you could not be more wrong. The United Kingdom has no written Constitution, no Bill of Rights, and now faces some of the most repressive legislation outside the old USSR.

The Conservative Government is using its dying months to introduce new powers of control to spy on British citizens. The new laws will give even wider powers for the Police and Security services to break into property, intercept mail, tap telephones, plant electronic listening and monitoring devices, plant tracking devices on vehicles and surveillance cameras on private property. The Police will be granted the right to effect unlawful entry to any premises to seize paperwork and correspondence, search and confiscate private property, break into vehicles and generally harass those who do not toe the line. The Home Office makes the excuse that the new powers are aimed at criminals and drug traffickers, but there are whole sections in the proposed laws which refer to those who are acting as part of an organisation which the government of the day disapproves, "conduct by a large number of persons in pursuit of a common purpose"

This new legislation will turn Britain into a police state where any kind of dissent will be punishable and any kind of civil liberty will be a thing of the past. This is how the Conservative face of 'democratic politics' in Britain proposes to defend 'democracy'.

The way forward, the only solution is to build National Socialism and consign 'their' system of politics to the dustbin of history.

WHO ARE YOU BUYING FROM?

Not many National Socialists in Britain realise that the immigrant/ethnic communities are now not only occupying huge parts of our towns and cities, but are also controlling a large number of high street stores. Most of these businesses avoid using Asian sounding names so as not to put off white shoppers, but a recent report in "Eastern Eye" magazine, gives the game away.

In the UK in the 1990's, Asian businessmen are running companies worth over £5 billion and employing over 250,000 people to work in their firms and manufacture their stock (not all in the UK by any means). Most of these Asians are now millionaires with strong political ties too. Typical companies include Europa Foods, Body Best Clothing, Joe Bloggs Clothing, Horne Brothers, Ciro Citterio, Flight Bookers, and the Edwardian Hotel group. Currently being championed is an Asian whiz kid from Manchester called Ruben Singe who is reported to be worth over £27 million and owns the Miss Attitude clothing chain with some 60 shops country wide and 600 staff.

So next time you go shopping with your wife and kids for cheap jeans or jumpers take a good look at the name of the shop and wonder who the profits go to.

THE WEREWOLF COLUMN

The Voice of National Socialist Resistance.

We must appeal to Youth !
They are the Future.

The future of any nation lies in the hands of future generations, the youth activists of today are the leaders of tomorrow

Here in the ranks of the British Movement are many who were first drawn into National Socialist and racial Nationalist politics as idealistic youngsters. Now they are older, more mature and educated by their experiences on the streets in pursuit of their ideology.

There can be no doubt that the youth of this country, taking that age group as being young men and women between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one, are now more sophisticated and aware than any previous generation. For this reason any appeal to youth must be based on the high quality of production and media wide basis with which they are familiar. There can also be no doubt that the youth of Britain are now facing an uncertain future in terms of the economy, social welfare, employment and government, more than any other generation since the 1920's. Little wonder that the youth are alienated from the political mainstream and are searching for alternative lifestyles, philosophies and ideologies.

There is an alternative:
NATIONAL SOCIALISM!

National Socialist thought for this issue.

"We are now ready to create large groups and formations, which with immense strength will pursue one aim only. We are ready to subordinate ourselves to our leaders and we despise those who, typical of yesterday and the day before, care only for the superficiality of the ego, those who think that by obeying an order from outside they are giving something away. This cult of individualism of past generations, this caressing of one's own peculiarity down to the most insignificant matters, we deplore. Therefore we also despise those circles of the present bourgeoisie which are incapable of organising themselves into forceful movements because they cannot and will not subordinate themselves, in the perpetual fear of losing a minute quantity of their own individuality.

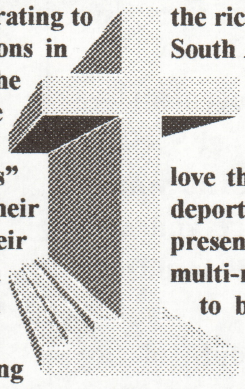
Religion The Destroyer

Religion is destroying the world. The poverty and hunger of over-populated Third World countries threatens to consume all the resources of the world if left unchecked. The desperate pursuit of modern lifestyles in undeveloped countries is polluting the seas, the rivers and lakes, destroying the tropical forests and turning fertile land into deserts. Instead of preaching population control and keeping the starving masses within their own national boundaries, the clergy encourage these masses to breed in the name of Christian brotherhood.

The Churches are fuelling the fires that will consume the world.

The Protestant churches are falling over themselves to embrace every other religion in multi-faith worship and world-brotherhood. Christian charities are directing funds and clergy to starving Third World states in Africa and Asia to win converts and preserve disease ridden, over-populated communities who can only survive on Western charity. The population growth of India and Bangladesh will swamp the sub-continent over the next twenty years and the masses can only survive by emigrating to the richer nations of the West.

The Pope continues to bless the population explosions in South Africa and the Philippines to win congregations for the Vatican. The greatest threat to this planet is the huge population presence in impoverished nations like Brazil and Mexico, yet the Pope urges these ignorant masses to have more children for his church.



The non-Conformist churches, the "Happy-Clappies" love the idea of multi-racial togetherness and openly shelter illegal immigrants and campaign against their deportation. In France the churches provide sanctuary for African illegal immigrants, feeding and funding their presence in France, resisting their deportation. In England the churches bend over backwards to create a multi-racial, multi-cultural, multi-faith society. These people are blind to the truth and will allow our Nation to be taken over by the non-White world in the name of their Christian brotherhood and fellowship.

The Churches cannot contain their joy in embracing multi-racialism as the cure for all the world's ills. Every anti-racist campaign is supported by the churches and liberal hearted Clergy.

Where once the Church led crusades to hold back the forces of Islam they now embrace and encourage the Muslim immigrants and support their growing communities in Britain.

The Churches ignore the message of their own scriptures, that the races were created different, each to its own continent, each to its own environment.

As National Socialists we can only recognise the religion of Faith and Folk, Blood and Soil, Race and Nation, the law of nature, the eternal law of survival of our people.

MORE UNORTHODOX OPINIONS, By Jeff.

The Pope and the Holy-see.
Destruction of the world through Ignorance.

World wide starvation of nations of people is by courtesy of the papacy. The papacy within its ideology, attained by the assumption that man's edification as education does not permit starvation, and indeed strives to curtail starvation, merges from the sublime to the ridiculous.

Acceptance of educated edification shows itself within starvation as imbecilic. Only a religion of people will stoop to indict starvation to sustain power over people who had no comprehension of Catholicism.

To sustain power over ignorant people, people of the same category of ignorance use ignorance, supposed education in the realm of ignorant edification, and by so doing dominate the scenario: starvation. The more people starve, the greater the power of papal ignorance. Ignorance is the greater power of the Holy-see.

The Holy is God, the sea of God is all within God's creation. Man cannot create anything within the sea except to apply misinterpretation of the written word of God and apply the misinterpretation to the self same ignorant peoples. Peoples who adhere to misinterpretation must yield to starvation and complain to God through sustained ignorance applied by the papacy.

In terms of simplicity, not one person within the papacy can read or decipher one chapter of any book within the written word: The Holy Bible.

The sooner people look around and examine the facts, the sooner the Gods will administer to the peoples the removal of starvation. Starvation will not be removed whilst ever people support any type of religious dogma.

Awake now and rise to correct law.

NATIONALISM IN THE PAST

The 1960's British National Party. Anti-Immigration campaigns in the early 1960's.
Photograph. South-East London October 13th 1961.

The British National Party stages a torchlight procession through the streets of South London from Peckham Rye Lane to Deptford to protest against unchecked non-white immigration into London and the rest of Britain.

Note the disciplined column led by drums and colour party with flags.

The BNP of the "Sixties" was founded in the early part of 1960 by a merger of the existing anti-coloured immigration White Defence League (WDL) and the National Labour Party (NLP). The organisation was based at "Arnold Leese House" in Princedale Road, Notting Hill, which had served as headquarters for the WDL. The leadership of the new party was centred on the existing leadership of the previous groups and formed the core of the BNP Council, Andrew Fountaine the Norfolk landowner was President, Colin Jordan was National Organiser, Mrs. Leese (widow of Arnold Leese) was vice-President. The respected street orator and founder member of the NLP, John Bean was a key figure in the new BNP as was a young street activist John Tyndall. The BNP had a broadsheet publication called "Combat" which was sold at meetings, street corners and around the London pubs. The bulk of the BNP's membership was based in London, with smaller units in the bigger cities such as, Liverpool, Leeds, Birmingham, Manchester, Coventry.

The majority of the BNP's activities were centred on London, picketing the arrival of trainloads of immigrants, leafleting neighbourhoods where large numbers of West Indians and Asians were settling, campaigning against the activities of CND and the anti-Apartheid Movement.

A "flying column" of London activists known as 'Spearhead' acted as stewards for meetings and rallies, as well as travelling by LandRover to support the smaller branches outside London. Such activities led to a riot at Cambridge University in October 1961, where Colin Jordan, Andrew Fountaine and John Tyndall addressed an audience in Cambridge Guildhall and BNP supporters fought with Left-wing and "anti-racist" students who tried to storm the meeting. There were outdoor rallies at Trafalgar Square, street meetings in South London and in the East End, and summer camps on Andrew Fountaine's land in Norfolk.

Unfortunately there was discord at the centre of the BNP Council and in February 1962 the organisation began to split, Colin Jordan left to form the NSM along with John Tyndall and other pro-National Socialist members, while John Bean and Andrew Fountaine continued with the BNP

The BNP continued its activities including a notorious street battle at Balls Pond Road, Dalston in September 1962 where the outdoor meeting was attacked by the Jewish Yellow Star Movement, and a number of BNP supporters badly assaulted.

Despite militant Left-wing opposition, the BNP continued to campaign in 1963, contesting seats in local elections and the general election of 1964.

The British National Party continued to campaign in this fashion, contesting seats in South London and Smethwick in the elections of March 1966. Still small in number and needing direction, the BNP went into negotiations with several other anti-immigration groups, merging in early 1967 to form a new political grouping, the National Front.

TRIAL BY MEDIA

The Stephen Lawrence murder case, facts & supposition.

A first class example of how the British media and politicians leap at events in the public eye is well illustrated by the circus surrounding the fatal stabbing of black teenager Stephen Lawrence in 1993, at a bus stop in Eltham, South-East London. The media and assorted liberal and leftist politicians have always maintained that this was a racially motivated killing and evidence that British society is bigoted and black people cannot get justice. There has always been a great deal of presumption and supposition surrounding this case, with lots of media hungry politicians searching for good PR and sound-bites. So much so that the facts of the case are ignored.

"nothing more than cynical exploitation"

Now the media has gone a step too far and has named five young White men and accused them of the killing despite the fact that none of the accused has been convicted despite repeated Police investigations; illegal methods of surveillance, and more than one court case.

What are the facts?

Stephen Lawrence was attacked at a bus stop by a gang and stabbed to death. But it is often glossed over that he was not alone, he was in the company of another black youth and where much is made of Stephen Lawrence's good character, little is said about that of his friend. It has been rumoured that the attack was initially against the other black youth for some local grievance and Lawrence was just in the wrong place at the wrong time.

The first court case was in July 1993, two of those named by the "Daily Mail" were acquitted on grounds of insufficient evidence. In 1996 a private prosecution brought by the Lawrence family against three of those named collapsed when the three were acquitted at the Old Bailey.

Defence counsel Mr. Ronald Thwaites Q.C has described the "Daily Mail" tactics as: "nothing more than cynical exploitation."

The civil rights of Stephen Lawrence and his family have scarcely been out of newspapers since the fatal stabbing. But the civil rights of the five young men persecuted and hounded by the media and the Police have been ignored.

The Lawrence case has been exploited and projected for a number of wholly political ends. It has suited the political Left and multi-racialists to use this as a wider issue. Every liberal and multi-culturalist has wanted to be part of the "Stephen Lawrence Campaign". Now that the legal process has been exhausted, the Campaign for Racial Equality is calling for a public enquiry, just to keep the circus going after almost four years.

Yet what about similar events?

The media has been very quiet about the deaths of at least four young White men in and around the Kings Cross area. Little has been said about the Asian gang who stabbed to death 15 year old Richard Everitt in the St. Pancras area in 1994 and the lack of convictions in court for those involved.

The South-East London area has had more than its share of racial violence aimed at the White community, but the media and establishment politicians play this down. It is when the Whites hit back that the media become interested again but only to blame the local community for inciting racial hatred against the ethnic minorities.

It is when the Whites hit back that the media become interested again

Only recently a national newspaper reminded its readers that the British Movement had been responsible for mob violence against the black community at Woolwich Station back in 1980. This was a distortion of the events of a ferocious battle between BM street activists and hundreds of black youths which was in retaliation for attacks on White youths by armed gangs of blacks. Of course the Police arrested plenty of skinheads that night and the media had a field-day.

As ever with the media; Where are the facts?

BLOOD & SOIL

AN ENGLISHMAN'S HOME IS HIS CASTLE.

NOT ANY MORE!

As National Socialists, the cities are lost to us in the short term, we must hold onto the county towns and shires. Those racial and political elements who are destroying the whole spectrum of British culture and heritage are firmly entrenched in the town halls and political administration of the cities and industrial towns, the ethnic minorities and fellow travellers control the local authorities and councils in many urban areas making their agendas a priority. In cities like Birmingham, Wolverhampton, Leicester, Bradford and London districts like Southall and Tower Hamlets the ethnic minority interest rules. As long as these elements dominate the urban political scene our people are effectively powerless. The political gangsters who run the councils in the inner cities use every piece of legislation available to crush those White British citizens who refuse to accept the imposition of the multi-racial society. If they can label a family as "racist", then they can use their legal process to kick them out of their council owned houses and flats, strip them of their rights as tenants, refuse them legal aid, cost them their jobs and break up their families. A number of test cases in the courts over the last two or three years has shown that the multi-racialists are quite prepared to throw 'White racists' out onto the streets

One of the first cases was brought in Birmingham, by the so called "Community Affairs Chair" of Birmingham City Council. Similar actions have taken place in Bristol, West Yorkshire, Greater Manchester and some of the London boroughs. These tactics are only part of the armoury used by the "democratic socialists" who control the majority of our city and town councils in the metropolitan boroughs and conurbations. To make matters worse for those white British who reject the multi-cultural society which has been forced on them , in most of the larger Labour controlled councils, the majority of councillors of inner city wards are drawn from the "ethnic minority" communities, so no chance of justice there.

As a movement we must build up a system of political resistance in both the urban and rural areas. The movement in the Shires and countryside will support and reenforce those units under siege in the built up areas. The strength of our support from the Shires and the coastal towns will generate the growth of our movement, it will not be from the cities but the countryside that our people will, spearhead our battle for a British revival from the heartlands of our folk.

Odin's Daughters

British Movement Women's Division. The Vixens (B.M.W.D.)

National Socialist Women of Britain.

The women members of the British Movement have joined together to re-launch the B.M.W.D. and doing so we are now working on the third issue of our publication "ODIN'S DAUGHTERS".

Women have always taken a back-seat in the National Socialist world, but have often been the encouraging force, the backbone behind some of the party's greatest leaders. We have been the one's who have had to build a firm foundation at home and keep our families together through the hard and trying times we are often confronted with, and most importantly with our children, ensuring that they do not fall into the trap of the multi-cultural world that is so easily available to them. Even our younger children just starting school can become victims of the left-wing ways of their teachings and begin to question our views and beliefs.

The B.M.W.D. want to reach out to all National Socialist women to become more active and voice your opinions. We are not asking you to go out marching on the streets, or even turn out to the Social Events - as we know this can be difficult for some people, and it is not always to everybody's liking. But what we are asking is don't leave it to your partner to do all the hard work. Make your opinions known through "ODIN'S DAUGHTERS". When you read something in the newspapers about an old lady being raped and burgled, or you see on T.V. about a child that has been abused and it makes you seethe with anger, don't just do nothing, write about it and let people know what you think. Give us your support and help us to build up what could be a thriving contribution towards the British Movement and help our struggle towards a brighter future with National Socialism.

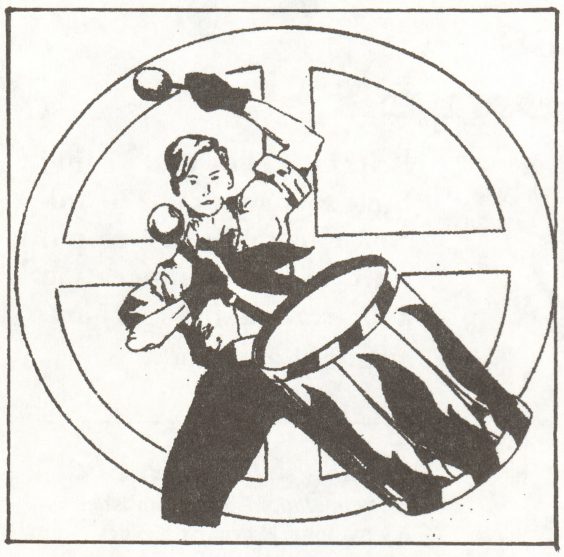
British Youth Awake!



National Socialism has always believed that one of its greatest assets has been its involvement with youth. Over the years the National Socialist structure of the world has always drawn youth into its ranks. The British Movement has done just this; its membership and its history has been built upon its youth.

In the late Seventies and through the Eighties, hordes of young people took to the ranks of the British Movement. With its mass recruitment drive, the British Movement Youth of those eras was known everywhere. The commitment of these youth was to each other and their cause.

The modern British Movement Youth Wing is again drawing in their ranks new members and is actively beginning to structure itself again after a long lapse of time.

The British Movement Youth support all the aims of the British Movement. In this day and age, 1997 doesn't offer much hope to the young and the future looks even grimmer.

On the television, and in the music industry, we can see only sexual perverts. The Drug cultures and Alien cultures are being rammed down our throats.

The British Movement teaches us the true values of life, and if the older generations of the Movement is anything to go by, it will make us into better, stronger people.

The society of Britain is betrayed by all the political parties, and the politicians constantly sell off our future. Britain is FOR SALE! and sell they will.

But one thing that we know for sure is that as long as the British Movement is around, then we, as a people, will not be bought at any price.

We need our youth to spread our message to all the corners of Britain and get Britain's youth back on the right path. The British Movement Youth Wing is to launch its own bulletin. We want to hear what our youth really have to say and make our voice be heard.

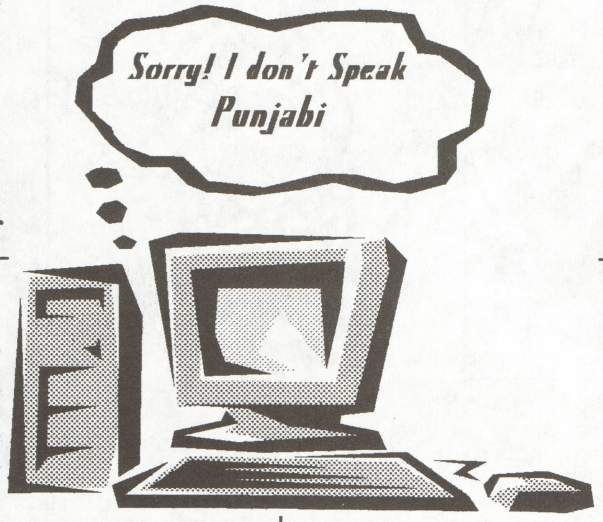
A REVIEW OF TOPICAL NEWS STORIES

A SYSTEM OF IRONIES

Ironically Whitehall is to axe 1,200 jobs from the immigration services to be replaced by technological computing systems to take over the human folly of allowing immigrants to become jobless Citizens of Britain. The cost could come to more than £20 million, and that's just to put staff of the Immigration and Nationality Department out of work.



Ethnic Jobless To Be Given Helping Hand

Figures have been released showing that a third of young Black and Asian people are jobless in the Kirklees area of West Yorkshire. The statistics are to be used to prod company bosses into giving a helping hand to get the youthful ethnics set up in work.

A spokeswoman for the council believes it is causing great concern within the council and the minority ethnic groups themselves.

The statistics show that employment for white people is treble that of the ethnic minority. Kirklees Council are to hold a meeting for employers to discuss the issues, and to look for employers to improve the situation.

"Nasty Characteristic"

"Population" an unpublished essay by John Maynard Keynes - the founding father of liberal economics - has been discovered in the archives of his Cambridge college.

Prof. John Toye described the essay as evidence of a "nasty characteristic" and that Keynes had an "arrogant and superficial" side, even by the standards of his day.

The 1913 essay describes the working class as "drunken and ignorant" and argues for legalised birth control to reduce their birth rate. He also advocates strict immigration controls for Europe.

What Right Has Britain

Tom Megahy the Euro-MP for Huddersfield attacked the British government because of its decision to block proposals for a European Union centre to monitor racism. The only country opposed to the proposal is Britain.

Mr Megahy feels that with the advent of letter bombs by right-wing terrorists to mixed race couples, the centre is needed more urgently than before.

"If the letter bombs were an isolated phenomena it would be bad enough, but it is only the tip of an iceberg of increasing racial violence, harassment of ethnic minorities and wide spread discrimination."

Broadsword's Say

Irvine Welsh - the author of the controversial novel "Trainspotting" about heroin addicts which inspired the film - spoke out at the Oxford Union that Ecstasy and cannabis should be legalised, and that Brian Harvey, the sacked East 17 singer who admitted taking 12 Ecstasy tablets in one night, was a victim of MPs intent on political capital in the run up to the election.

Is it a wonder that British youths - in a European survey on the attitudes of the nation's youth by MTV - are accepted as the Beavis and Butthead of today's generation? (Obtuse cartoons don't help matters).

The British youth lack discipline, encouragement, a sense of purpose and true identity; they are over sexed, over drugged and undermine our integrity when accused of being racists. Do they really know what the fight is about?

Denial can be an offence

Will Labour pass the Holocaust Denial Bill introduce by Mike Gapes MP if Labour come to power?

At an exhibition commemorating Anne Frank, Tony Blair spoke of a strong case that denial of the Holocaust should be a specific offence.

"We are giving active consideration to how this should be achieved."

The Pamphlet "Did Six Million Really Die?" has been circulating for years and those responsible for their distribution are considered to be ODIOUS CRANKS who have now joined the electronic age and purvey their lies to any available laptop.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Broadsword,

Latest Broadsword was great, can you send me ten extra copies.

I have enclosed some press cuttings and I notice that whenever the press does one of those, "gasp! shock horror" exposures of British "neo-nazis" etc. that there is never any feedback in their letters page. Strange that?

N.R. Kent.

Dear Broadsword,

I want to say thankyou for putting my letter and poem in Issue 8 of Broadsword. I was touched that my words would be used to reach others.

I hope that one day when I get out, I'll be able to go to the homeland. I don't feel right living in America, I may be only 21 and born here, but still I'm a foreigner.

There has been some rioting here in the U.S. in St. Petersburg, Florida because a White policeman was found not-guilty for killing a *N. The *Ns always do that *Sh when they have to answer to the White man's justice!

It's really sad that our own government works to benefit all the other races and not us Whites. I know the fore-fathers who landed here never meant for this to happen. When Thomas Jefferson wrote: "We are all created equal" in the U.S. Constitution, he said the White men and women here are equal to those in Britain. Now our people have let these *Ns and non-Whites twist our own words that were meant to protect us.

I want no part of a country that sells out its own people. We must secure our own White nations. Even from prison I try to educate others through my little brother and his friends.

Well, thankyou again Sir, for putting my poem and letter in Broadsword.

BLOOD AND SOIL

No matter how much the soil, for example, is able to influence the people, the result will always be a different one, according to the race under consideration. The scanty fertility of a living space may instigate one race towards the highest achievements, while with another race this may only become the cause for the dire poverty and ultimate malnutrition with all its consequences. The inner disposition of the Folk is always decisive for the way in which outward influences work themselves out. What leads one Folk to starvation, trains the other for hard work.

Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf

BLOOD & SOIL is now out. 24 pages with a card cover, this top quality pamphlet contains numerous articles on the cultural aspects of National Socialism. It costs only £1-38 (including Post and packing).
